

Scheme Guidelines

Central Sector Scheme for supporting Continuing Medical Education (CME) in AYUSH

1. INTRODUCTION:

The scheme of Continuing Medical Education (CME) was implemented in 11th Plan and about 22,000 AYUSH personnel were given need-based training. The target in 12th Plan is to cover maximum number of AYUSH teachers, doctors, paramedicals and others personnel. There is a need for continuing the training for upgrading their professional competence & skills and their capacity building. Emerging trends of healthcare and scientific outcomes necessitate time to time enhancement of professional knowledge of teachers, practitioners, researchers and other professionals. Many issues of the profession cannot be covered through stereotyped course curricula, and need augmentation & clarification through direct interaction with the resource persons and domain experts. Good Clinical Practices and Good Teaching Practices are the two areas where AYUSH practitioners and teachers need to be regularly updated to keep up the standards of health delivery and adequate training of students respectively in accordance with the emerging demands. Policy makers and administrators need to be given training for effective management of institutions. Similarly, use of Information Technology as a tool for widespread dissemination of AYUSH developments and updates is need of the hour in the present era of fast changing trends & methodologies. Many AYUSH teachers and practitioners, do not have access to professional journals and web-based CME like their allopathic counterparts. Web-based distant educational programmes like the ones conducted by UGC are required for AYUSH for wider dissemination of current information and trends. The services of AYUSH paramedics and health workers are also of utmost importance in healthcare. Hence, the upgradation of knowledge of these personnel with updates and changing trends is proposed under this Scheme.

The updated pattern of the scheme is based on the experience gained during 11th Plan, feedback received from various institutions, requirements for varied nature of training of AYUSH personnel, their exposure to AYUSH centres of best practices and the recommendations of the private agency, which evaluated the scheme that was implemented during 11th Plan. Overall structure of the scheme is aimed at encouraging AYUSH personnel to undergo need-based professional training and bridge the knowledge gaps.

2. PURPOSE OF TRAINING TO TEACHERS AND DOCTORS:

- a. To encourage AYUSH professionals to undergo need-based professional orientation and professional skill development in an organized manner.
- b. To update the professional knowledge of teachers and doctors to adopt good teaching practices and good clinical practices respectively.
- c. To encourage the use of Information technology and web-based education programmes for widespread dissemination of AYUSH developments and updates.
- d. To train doctors in emerging trends of healthcare and scientific outcomes for keeping up the standards to health care delivery.
- e. To provide information to doctors on professional journals to keep them professionally updated.

- f. To encourage AYUSH paramedics and health workers to undergo periodical training for improving healthcare services in hospitals and dispensaries.
- g. To arrange need-based management training programmes to administrators of AYUSH institutions and hospitals on health aspects for delivering quality services.
- h. To update regarding current trends in R & D activities for development of AYUSH systems and highlight the areas of research and avenues for collaborative activities.
- i. To apprise regarding new Acts/ notifications and other information addressing regulatory issues in AYUSH systems.
